2. University Calendar:

Please kindly refer to the attached university calendar. Also, please be kindly noted that the exact dates and places for registration for exchange students will be confirmed in the admission letters.

3. Orientation:

Orientation week is at the beginning of each new semester, right after the date of registration. Exchange students are strongly advised to take part in the orientation as instructions will be given on course registration.

4. Study Programs (Students could only choose ONE of the programs below)

❖ Undergraduate study program

Students taking part in this program should be undergraduate students at their home university. They will have the opportunity to take courses with ZJU students. Please refer to the attached tentative English course-list (with hyperlink) for undergraduate students and indicate on the application in which school or department they would like to study at ZJU. Please note that not all the courses on the list will be available each semester and the exchange students will be able to register for the courses only after the start of the new semester, during the orientation.

Students admitted in this program could also take courses on Chinese language and courses on China Profile (both courses include 48 teaching hours per semester).

❖ Postgraduate study program

Students taking part in this program should be graduate students at their home university. They will have the opportunity to take courses with ZJU students. Please refer to the attached tentative English course-list (with hyperlink) for graduate students and indicate on the application in which school or department they would like to study at ZJU. Please note that not all the courses on the list will be available each semester and the exchange students will be able to register for the courses only after the start of the new semester, during the orientation.

Students admitted in this program could also take courses on Chinese language (32 teaching hours per semester) and courses on China Profile (48 teaching hours per semester).

Graduate students in this program could also have the opportunity to do research projects at ZJU instead of taking courses. In this case, the students should indicate in which school/college/department they would like to do research at ZJU and provide a detailed research plan attached to the application.

❖ Intensive Chinese language and culture program

ZJU offers intensive courses on Chinese language and culture on different levels for international students. The students who plan to take this program will have to take a Chinese language proficiency test during the orientation so that they could be placed in classes that suit them best.

The intensive Chinese language and culture program includes 20 teaching hours (1 teaching hour is equivalent to 45 minutes at ZJU) of compulsory courses per week, including reading, listening, practical conversation and writing, etc. Besides, the students could take no more than 3 elective courses on Chinese society and culture per semester.

5. Credit system:

Full-degree undergraduate students at ZJU are required to get a minimum of 15 credits per semester and a total of 169 credits during their 4-5 years study program. Full-degree graduate students at ZJU are required to get a total of 26 credits during their 2-2.5 years study program. Full-degree PhD students at ZJU are required to get a total of 14 credits during their 3-3.5 years study program. 1 credit at ZJU is equivalent to 16 teaching hours. Currently we do not have any credit requirements for exchange students. The transcripts for exchange students will be issued at the end of each semester and be sent to the home university coordinators.

6. Language requirements:

We do not require any English or Chinese language certificates at the moment. However, a very good command of English is required. If the students want to take the courses taught in Chinese in the fields of liberal arts and law, they should have the Chinese language proficiency equivalent to new HSK 5 or above.

7. Number of exchange students:

Please contact ZJU coordinator to know the maximum number of exchange students we could accept for each semester/per academic year.

8. Nationality of the exchange students:

Please kindly note that we do not accept students of Chinese nationality.

9. Insurance:

Exchange students shall purchase overseas insurance at the home country before they leave for China.

12. Accommodation:

Accommodation for exchange students will be automatically reserved. Exchange students will be arranged to stay on or near the university campus where their specialty College/Department is located. The approximate price of housing is 1500 RMB per person per month. Due to the limited number of the rooms on campus, usually two students have to share one room without the kitchen. Exchange students are usually allowed to check in within three days before the date of registration.

Please prepare 800 RMB for refundable room deposit upon lodging in.
